SUMMON HEADS OF RUBBER PLANTS

Ohio Senate Probers Prepare
For the Investigation.

Akron, O., March 1.—After a conference with rubber magnates and striking rubber workers, Senators Green and Howard of the Ohio senate's investigating committee, prepared subpoenas for the heads of six of the large rubber factories here.
Summonses were prepared for the following men:

B. G. Work, president of the Goodrich company; F. A. Sieberling, president of the Goodyear company; H. S.
Firestone, president of the Firestone company; Harold Parsons, secretary of the Akron Manufacturers' association; E. C. Shaw, secretary of the Goodrich company; F. H. Mason, vice president of the Goodrich company.

All these are in Akron except Mr.
Work. The others have signified their willingness to aid the committee in its investigation.

The actual work of the investigation of conditions will not commence until Monday when Senator Stewart, the third member of the senate committee, will arrive here.

Strikers refrained from demonstrations of any kind, and only a very few pickets appeared at factory gates.

Members of the state board of arbitration will remain here unless there is a further disruption.

Major General Dick Loses Office.
Major General Dick Loses Job.

Columbus, O., March 1.—Major General Charles Dick of Akron, former United States senator, has by action of Governor Cox, lost his office as division commander of the Ohio national guard, a position he has filled for many years. Under a ruling by Attorney General Hogan that the guard as at present organized does not contain units enough to compose a division, the governor, through Adjutant General George H. Wood, issued an order disbanding the division formation of the guard.

Mexico City, March 1.—General
Manuel Mondragon, minister of war, announces that 11 rebel commanders and 2,500 men have surrendered to the government.

Ramos Martinez, an attorney of this city, is to be the government intermediary with the Zapatistas. The terms of peace between General Huerta and Emiliano Zapata have been arranged.
Francisco I. Madero in two years of authority was unable to conquer or pacify the Zapatistas.

The body of Francisco I. Madero was interred in the family cemetery of the Maderos at San Pedro de los Pinos, in Coahuila. The government announced officially that Emilio Madero, a brother of the late president, was killed while leading a force of insurgents in northern Mexico.

All dispatches from the provinces indicate that the government is gaining control of the country. Rebel and bandit chiefs dare not oppose Huerta and Diaz. The Maderistas, while bitterly opposed to the new government, are without a leader.

The government is making preparations to receive General Porfirio Diaz.
A company of Chapultepec cadets and a detachment of Tlalpam cadets will be sent abroad, perhaps to Egypt, to invite the former president to return to Mexico, and act as his escort if he consents. General Huerta intends to welcome the old dictator with every mark of honor.

General Felix Diaz formally announced his candidacy for the presidency. He is assured of the support of General Huerta, and his only opponent of consequence will be Francisco Leon de la Barra, the present foreign minister. The return of General Porfirio Diaz is expected to help the cause of his nephew.

The government announces that about 4,000 were killed and upwards of 10,000 wounded in the 11 days' artillery fighting in the streets of the capital.

TAFT RELEASES REBELS

Issues Order Liberating All Mexicans Held On the Border.

Washington, March 1. — President Taft directed the release of all Mexican prisoners held on the border because of complicity in revolutionary activities in violation of the neutrality laws of the United States. Their release was largely due to the fact that the recent events in Mexico City have made those belligerents who were formerly of the "outs," now among the "ins." The military authorities have also granted permission to David de la Fuente, who has been chosen as the representative of the Orozco revolutionists in the Huerta cabinet, to go to San Antonio, Tex., and confer with representatives of the Huerta government. It is said that De la Fuente fears his life will be endangered if he attempts to go to Mexico City by way of the northern border.

Children Poisoned.

Cleveland, O., March 1. — Coroner
Byrne announced, after an investigation, that the deaths of two of the children of Wajcieck Kleitka were caused by ptomaine poisoning. Joseph, 4, was taken sick shortly after his brother John, 7, died. Joseph's death soon followed, and the nine-months-old baby soon became seriously ill.

The Capitol Ready For Inauguration Day Ceremonies

DID NOT WAIT TILL THE LAST MINUTE

Vice President-Elect Marshall Arrives
in Washington.

Washington, March 1.—Thomas R.
Marshall of Indiana, vice president-elect of the United States, came to Washington for a stay of at least four years. His arrival was the first formal event of the inauguration. Senator Kern of Indiana and Chairman Henry B. McFarland of the local reception committee went out to the trainshed to grasp the incoming statesman's hand, first of all.

Governor Marshall, when asked for his private views of the Mexican situation, said: "To put the matter concretely, my opinion is that we should spend every dollar in the United States treasury, if it becomes necessary, to save a single American life, but that we should not shed a single drop of American blood to save American dollars."

Wilson's Successor Installed.

Trenton, N. J., March 1.—President-elect Wilson was present today at the ceremonies incident to the installation of Senator Fielder, who, as president of the senate, succeeded him in the governorship at noon, when Mr. Wilson's resignation became effective.

Suffrage Army Under General Rosalie
Jones Is Given Ovation.

Washington, March 1. — General
Rosalie Jones and her suffrage army marched triumphantly into the capitol, through the capitol grounds and down Pennsylvania avenue with an escort of local enthusiasts and citizens, which fairly choked the streets and delayed traffic. It was one of the most remarkable street demonstrations ever seen here. A presidential inauguration could hardly have presented a more enthusiastic spectacle after the plucky, disheveled band of suffrage pilgrims swung wearily around the peace monument for the final march of their 250-mile walk from New York for the cause of equal franchise.

Dry Contest Election.

Upper Sandusky, O., March 1.—A petition to contest the Beal law election held at Sycamore Feb. 18 was filed in the probate court here by the drys. Illegal voting being alleged. It was also asked that the election records be made to show the vote tie.

With President Taft.

SIXTY-THREE VOTE AGAINST HIM

Chief Magistrate Holds the Webb Bill Unconstitutional Because It Gives States Right to Interfere With Interstate Commerce—Bases Decision On Opinion Handed Down by the Attorney General.

Washington, March 1.—One of the last big official acts of President Taft has been the planting of himself firmly upon the constitution in defiance of the temperance sentiment of the country. That is what he did when he vetoed the Webb bill prohibiting the shipment of liquor from a wet into a dry state, when intended for use in violation of law. The president's veto was promptly overridden by the senate by a vote of 63 to 21. It is expected that the house will follow the lead of the senate and that the bill will be put on the statute books over the president's official objection. Mr.
Taft based his veto entirely on what he regards as the unconstitutionality of the law.

A short debate, in which the advocates of the bill voted down a motion to postpone action, and in which they reaffirmed their belief that the measure is constitutional, ended with the repassage of the bill by the large majority of 63 to 21.

Basing his decision on the attorney general's findings, the president expressed the belief that the measure is clearly unconstitutional, because it gives the states the right to interfere with interstate commerce.

Senator McCumber declared both the president and the attorney general had misconstrued the grounds upon which congress had passed the prohibition law. He said it had not attempted to give the states the right

CHARGES AND OTHER CHARGES LISTENED TO

ANHUT'S STORY O.K.
SAYS THAW'S AGENT

Alleged Go-Between Appears Before Sulzer Committee.

Albany, N. Y., March 1.—Harry K.
Thaw's agent, Horace A. Hoffman, on the stand before the Sulzer committee of inquiry, told that he knew of money transactions between Thaw and persons whose names have come before the probe committee in evidence. He corroborated the testimony of John N. Anhut, the lawyer, said to have offered $20,000 to Dr. John Russell, resigned head of the Matteawan asylum, for the release of Thaw. He told the committee that its secretary, William F. Clark, who swore a "prison ring" had a monopoly of pardons and had been bleeding Thaw for money, received $100 from Thaw for work done for him at Utica.

Among other things Mr. Hoffman swore was that Alfred Henry Lewis, the writer, was on the payroll of Mr.
Thaw. Mr. Hoffman, who said that he was a messenger rather than a detective for Thaw, said he kept a separate bank account for Thaw's money in his keeping, and that it sometimes ran as high as $3,000.

As to the $25,000 which Anhut received ($5,000 in cash and $20,000 in securities), Hoffman said it was given him by Thaw at Matteawan. He did not surmise it was for bribery purposes. The name of Governor Sulzer, who Mr. Clark is said to have told Mr. Russell would be pleased if Thaw were released, was not mentioned by Clark to Hoffman, the witness said, and neither did Clark talk of getting Thaw out.

GIANT CAVE MAN IN JAIL HOSPITAL

Pittsburg, March 1. — Green county's giant cave man, who for 10 years has excited the rural community up the Monongahela valley, is in the jail hospital here. He was captured after he fell over a precipice and was rendered unconscious. He gave his three captors a terrific pummeling. The jail physician says his skull is fractured. The hermit lived in an abandoned coal mine, prowled at night and was never seen in daytime. His foraging depredations aroused the hostility of the community.

National Committeeman And a Multi-millionaire Passes Through the City

Special Train on B. & O. S. W. Today Carries Honored Citizen Who Is Former Mt. Sterling Boy.

HON. ROBERT GALBREATH GREETED OLD NEIGHBORS

Sketch of Life of Man Who Left Mt. Sterling a Poor Boy Some 25 Years Ago, Reads Like Twentieth Century Romance. Made Immense Fortune in Oil Business and Is Influential Politician.

Saturday afternoon a special train headed for the inauguration of President Wilson, passed through this city on the B. & O. railroad, bearing many prominent persons, including Hon. Robert Galbreath, multi-millionaire and National Committeeman from Oklahoma, a former resident of Mt. Sterling, through which town he passed a few minutes later, and was greeted by a large concourse of his former fellow-townsmen and their descendants.

Twenty-five years ago Mr. Galbreath, then a young man, barely of age, turned his eyes toward the land of promise—the great southwest, and his stock-in-trade was nerve and pluck and a strong physical constitution.

Galbreath tried to arrange a stop for his train at Mt. Sterling, if only for a few minutes, in order that he might meet and greet again old friends of his boyhood and young manhood.

The train reached this city shortly after two o'clock and a short stop was made here.

The train is known as the Oklahoma Booster's train and contained 150 persons, and quite a number assembled at the station to greet the train and examine the many exhibits from Oklahoma.

Mr. Galbreath and Mr. J. Robert Gillam, manager of the train, are both very genial men, and extended a hearty welcome to a Herald reporter, showing him about the train from one end to the other.

After the band had played one selection and all had viewed the exhibits the train rolled onward.

The life and history of Robert Galbreath reads stranger than most romances, says a recent dispatch from Muskogee, Okla. In the mad rush for homes, when Oklahoma was thrown open to settlers, April, 1889, young Galbreath was one of the homeseekers and mounted on a small Western pony, about all he had, made the run and squatted on a claim near Oklahoma City, which afterward became valuable. Galbreath engaged in the real estate business in Oklahoma City and with varied success.

At times he would be in good shape and again he would be broke. Things ran on this way until the opening up of the Glenpool oil field, near Tulsa, Okla., in which Galbreath and a New Yorker by the name of Chelsey had joined hands and were drilling wells. They had expended all they had and all they could borrow before success came to them, and it is said that their hands had been paid nothing for more than six weeks when the first well showed with a production of 200 barrels a day. Since then it has been comparatively easy sailing.

In addition to having great investments in the Oklahoma oil fields Robert Galbreath has much real estate at Tulsa and other points in Oklahoma. He is president and principal owner of a big brick plant, and is President and Director in a number of other enterprises. He is a great man for developments of any sort, and will gladly put in his money if he thinks well of any proposition placed before him.

Galbreath has always been a strong Democrat, and has at all times taken an active interest in the success of Democratic nominees and is a liberal contributor to all Democratic campaign funds. A little over a year ago Galbreath became a candidate for National Committeeman of Oklahoma, the only office he ever asked for or wanted. He was opposed by several strong candidates, among the number John B. Doolin, State Game and Fish Warden, who had been assistant treasurer of the National Campaign Committee in 1908 and who was regarded as about the strongest man in the state. Galbreath was placed in nomination, and by the time the second speeches were finished all other candidates had withdrawn and Galbreath was named by acclamation.

Task Before Local Citizens

Washington is being thoroughly advertised throughout the state by articles somewhat similar to the following:

"Official announcement has been made by Department Commander Blodgett that the next state encampment of the G. A. R. will be held in Washington C. H., June 16 to 20, and that the committees in charge will have everything in readiness to care for 20,000 visitors.

"The shrinkage in membership of the department this year will be small, as many of the posts have been very active in recruiting.

"Ohio now stands at the head. Commander-in-chief Beers has notified General Blodgett that the date and place of the next national encampment has not yet been fixed."

So far very little has been done toward the herculean task before the citizens of Washington in handling the mammoth crowds which will throng this city next June, and early and thorough organization is necessary to make the affair one of complete success.

NOTES

The building will be open tomorrow from 8 to 5 p. m., as usual.

The Independents who played Bloomingburg last night were defeated by the score of 66 to 10.

We frequently have positions for men and also men desiring jobs. At present we have an opening for a traveling salesman and a young man of 17 years who desires work.

Dr. J. Knox Montgomery, president of Muskingum college, yesterday accepted April 20th as a date to come here and deliver 3 addresses.

Frequently we have calls for a good place to secure meals, also homes where room and board may be secured. We should appreciate having the names of such places that we may assist inquiring men.

Good Attendance At Memorial Service

There was a good attendance of loyal temperance women at the W. C. T. U. Francis E. Willard Memorial services held on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sharp-Davies. Much interest attached to the program.

Mrs. F. E. Ross conducted the devotionals.

Miss Annette Stafford played a beautiful piano solo in opening and Mrs. J. Howard Hicks in closing.

A fine paper on "Francis E. Willard as a Woman, Reformer and Philanthropist," written by Mrs. Howard McLean, was read by Mrs. Carrie B. Willis.

Miss Dora Eggleston also had an excellent paper on "Francis E. Willard as a Suffragist."

The Francis E. Willard offering was followed by an enjoyable social hour, during which Mrs. Sharp-Davies served dainty refreshments.

Teacher Is Given Surprise

Miss Ollie Cook, teacher of the Merriweather school in a pint township, was very pleasantly as well as greatly surprised Friday noon, when a large number of those living in the neighborhood assembled at the school house just as school had been dismissed for the noon recess and informed her that they had come prepared to assist in the celebration of her birthday.

Most of the self invited visitors had prepared enough toothsome food to feed many persons, and this was arranged upon tables so that all could dine together and enjoy the repast all the more.

The afternoon was spent in various helpful exercises such as spelling and ciphering. Miss Cook also received quite a number of handsome presents.

IN SOCIETY

Miss Dorothy Fullerton delightfully entertained a dozen girls at an informal baked bean supper Friday night.

The table was exceedingly pretty with a green and yellow color scheme carried out in Easter flowers and asparagus, and lighted by yellow candles.

The Damfino club had a jolly little dance at their club rooms Friday night.

Thirty-five couples thoroughly enjoyed the Terpsichorean club dance Friday night at the Pythian Castle.

Walter Head, of Greenfield, and Murray furnished excellent music, a feature of which was Mr. Head's popular tenor solos. The young Greenfield musician has a beautiful voice and his singing of the rhythmic dance music was inspiring.

These club dances are popular events of the winter season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sturgeon, south of town, entertained with a handsome dinner on Thursday. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Harry King and son, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Post, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hardway and son, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Pine, Mr. and Mrs. George Grove, Mrs. Homer Sturgeon.

Manasquan, N. J.—Sour milk as an antidote for age is not comparable with plain sea water, according to William K. Ireton, who takes it every day as a tonic.

Ireton, who is eighty years old, looks about forty. He is proprietor of a local amusement hall and works ten or more hours a day.

Up at 4 o'clock every morning, he hurries to the beach, where he dips up a glassful of water from the waves and quaffs it as if it were the elixir of life. Ireton says it does not taste good, and he does not like it, but it has the effect he desires.

SEEKS PURSE OF CROESUS.

Archaeologist Digging For Palace of World's Richest Man.

Princeton, N. J.—Howard Butler of Croton Falls, professor of arts and archaeology in Princeton university, is now on the way to Smyrna, Asia, to make excavations at Sardis in quest of the pocketbook of Croesus, reputed to have been the richest man in the world.

Professor Butler and his assistants will continue their search for several weeks.

Sardis was a great commercial metropolis and the home of Croesus.

Harvard's Namesake Gets Scholarship.

Toronto.—When it became known in a meeting of the Toronto Harvard club that John Harvard, a namesake of the founder of the American university, lived in Welland, Ont., and that he would soon be ready to enter college arrangements were made to award the club's scholarship to the young man.

The club also arranged to trace the genealogy of the Harvard family in Canada to ascertain the exact relationship of the Welland youth to the founder of the university.

Minimum Wage Fixed at $800

That a man cannot live on $720 a year and "keep up appearances" was the decision of the Senate this week, when it overturned its Post-office Committee, voted out all $720 salaries for postal clerks and mail carriers and accepted the $800 minimum salary previously fixed by the House. Senators Curtis, Cummins and Kenyon led the fight for higher wages; while Senator Bristow, defending the Senate committee, declared he would never vote to raise Government salaries until there was some means of protecting the laboring men outside the Government services.

The Senate adopted the $800 salary by a vote of 31 to 17. Senator Ashurst produced figures during the debate to show that the average man in a responsible position could not maintain a family for less than $768.54.

Accidents In Ohio Factories

The toll in human life and blood paid annually by the workers in Ohio factories and shops is startlingly set forth in the annual report of State Factory Inspector Thomas M. Kearns.

During the past year according to Inspector Kearns' report, there were a total of 12,700 industrial accidents. Of these 195 resulted in death, 7,334 were serious and 5,161 were of a minor nature. The total number is an increase over 1911 of 6,000.

With a total of 1,169, October of last year holds the accident record of the months, December had the least, 810. The greatest number of accidents occurred between 6 and 9 in the morning. Inspector Kearns thinks that workmen get off their stride overnight, particularly if they indulge in dissipation, and hence are more likely to blunder in the opening hours of the day.

Of the 195 killed, only 2 were women; 125 were married men and left 339 dependents, who received an aggregate compensation from employers of $67,532; 49 were between 14 and 25 years of age, 66 between 25 and 35, 41 between 35 and 45 and 39 were over 45 years of age.

Of a total of 817 permanently disabled workers, 26 lost eyes, 16 arms, 21 hands, 5 legs and 5 feet.

The 12,700 injured workmen had 17,391 persons dependent upon their support and lost wages aggregating $346,735 during their periods of disablement. Employers paid them compensation for injuries totaling $168,951.

Iron and steel workers were most subject to accidents, 6,673 suffering disablement or death.

The "Chain" May Be Snapped

There is no little hostility being openly manifested at the present time, both in Ohio and elsewhere, against that chain of newspapers which is known as the Scripps-McRae League.

This newspaper league publishes five papers in Ohio, one in Cincinnati, one in Columbus, one in Cleveland, one in Toledo and one in Akron.

When it is known that those papers all hold editorially to the same policy and taken collectively—all striking at once in widely separated points of the state, all striking the same blows and hammering at the same subject matter the immense influence which they wield in shaping public sentiment can well be understood and appreciated.

These papers have maintained a consistent hammering of everything and everybody of influence and position, in the official world, in field of politics and in the realm of business. The uniform policy has been to strike at the prosperous and the successful in all walks of life, apparently with no other cause or excuse for it than the mere success of the men or enterprise attacked.

Unfortunately the world contains a considerable number of people who are willing to listen to and believe evil of those who have made a success and as a consequence the Scripps papers have flourished financially. Because of the extreme ground assumed in many instances, the ultra radical changes advocated they have become sensations in newspaperdom and their circulation has increased until the number of people who read them is an amazing percentage of the population.

There is no denying the fact that they have accomplished a considerable good in awakening public sentiment on vital subjects. And credit for that is generously bestowed.

But of late the activity of this newspaper chain in seeking to dominate public officials, obtain a pledge from candidates in advance of their election and their open opposition to certain legislation which is proposed, their abuse of officials known to be honest in fact, has given great weight to the charge now openly urged in many quarters that much success in the work of destruction has made them mad and the game having been demonstrated to be immensely profitable financially, it is continued whether real cause exists or not.

Candidates for office have quailed before this formidable power and public officials have but weakly attempted to conceal their anxiety lest they do something to offend and thus subject themselves to unreasonable abuse.

One by one public officials have refused to bow to this formidable power and now every day some fearless public servant announces that for himself henceforth he proposes to serve his constituents to the best of his ability and not to take orders direct from the newspaper league.

It is to be regretted that such an immense power for good should be diverted from its proper channel; that having accomplished a great work the present policy, whether from an erroneous belief in certain legislative proposals, or from, as enemies freely charge, a mere desire to increase circulation and make more money, this splendid force should continue to be a destructive force when all need for destruction had passed by.

An effort is now being made to check the activity of the representatives of this chain of newspapers in reference to pending legislation, claiming that their course renders them amenable to punishment under the anti-lobby law.

A proceeding to prosecute the owners of the papers under the laws which forbid the doing of any act to intimidate a voter or obtain from a candidate for office, a promise or pledge.

So far there has been little opposition to the policy pursued, but just now small guns are beginning to pop in all directions and the artillery threatens to move into position.

The chain of newspapers has proven to be good on the offensive fighting and unless conditions soon change the public may see the same newspapers fighting on the defensive.

Newspaper Reflects the Reader

By Dr. TALCOTT WILLIAMS, Director School of Journalism, Columbia University

THE newspaper is a human agency. Like all human agencies, it HAS ITS LIMITATIONS. It has its relations and affairs that limit it, just as men have relations and affairs that limit them. It is part of the great web of social life, and that is why it is valuable.

Every day of the year every newspaper prints news, opinions and appeals of which many men related to it in the business world disapprove.

IT IS THE READERS THAT COUNT, AND, AFTER ALL, A NEWSPAPER IS WHAT ITS READERS MAKE IT. IT IS THE KIND OF NEWSPAPER IT IS BECAUSE THAT IS THE KIND THE PEOPLE WHO BUY IT LIKE.

The newspaper account is FAR more accurate than the average word that passes from mouth to mouth among men. In the main, the newspaper is far more truthful than the community it represents, and as for righteousness the newspaper is BETTER THAN THE AVERAGE OF ITS COMMUNITY.

Poetry For Today

HOW DID YOU TAKE IT?

Did you tackle the trouble that came your way,
With a resolute heart and cheerful?
Or hide your face from the light of day
With a craven soul and fearful?
Oh, a trouble's a ton, or a trouble is an ounce,
Or a trouble is what you make it.
And it isn't the fact that you are hurt that counts,
But only, How did you take it?

You are beaten to earth? Well, well, what's that?
Come up with a smiling face.
It's nothing against you to fall down flat,
But to lie there—that's disgrace.
The harder you're thrown, why the higher you bounce;
Be proud of your blackened eye!
It isn't the fact that you're licked that counts;
It's, How did you fight, and why?

And though you be done to the death, what then?
If you battled the best you could,
If you played your part in the world of men,
Why, the critic will call it good.
Death comes with a crawl, or comes with a pounce
And whether he's slow or spry,
It isn't the fact that your are dead that counts,
But only, How did you die?

THE HERALD NEWS
40 YEARS AGO

December 13, 1866.

The return of cold weather brings into requisition the old army blue overcoats. Here and there you can see them passing along the streets on a wintry day. Some of them, could they relate their experiences would tell tales of suffering and hardships in those days when they were worn by the soldier boys down in Dixie, which would make us more than ever rejoice that the "cruel war is over." Uncle Sam's extensive wardrobe is scattered over a wide territory, and it will be a long while before the blue coats will entirely disappear.

The young folks have a "Social Hop" at Ely Hall tonight, the first of a series to come off semi-monthly during the winter.

The black cap and robe, used in the execution of Smith, last Friday, was the same used in the execution of Covert, at Lebanon, last August.

—Circleville Democrat

That is a mistake. The rope and black cap were manufactured for Smith's special benefit and were not the same used in hanging Covert.

Saxton and Blackmore want to buy all the coop skins, muskrat, mink, and in fact every kind of skins and pelts brought to this town. Highest market price paid.

By general request the Thespians repeated their play of the Drunkard at Ely Hall, on New Years evening, last, before a crowded and well entertained audience. The characters as is usual to them were well sustained. We understand that they design, in the course of a few weeks, to play "Uncle Tom's Cabin." The object of these performances is to afford a little pleasant pastime and to procure a little means for benevolent purposes.

Farmers near Clarksburg are organizing for the purpose of marketing their grain by auto truck and within a short time they hope to have a "Community Truck" which will be used in transporting their grain to the nearest market, and when not used for this purpose will haul manure from Chillicothe to the farms. They expect to use an eight ton truck.

The Chillicothe Board of Education lowered the amount of insurance on school property in that city $50,000.00.

The Piqua Creamery Company failed some time ago and a report of the Referee in Bankruptcy to the court shows the company owes over $17,000.00, without a cent of assets.

Pat Donohue, one time a crack catcher for the Washington Grays, lost an appeal made to the National Base Ball Commission for salary alleged to be due him from the Atlanta club in the Southern League, where he played last summer. He broke his thumb in a game and was compelled to lay up for a time, during which he was released. In part the finding is: "We are convinced that his release was warranted by his misconduct and failure to keep in condition for playing and was not due to the injury he received in a game."

A wife beater was before a Springfield justice and besides getting $100 and costs received a stiff jail sentence.

"MADAME SHERRY."

The New York New Amsterdam Theater company which will present "Madame Sherry" in this city on Tuesday, March 4, at Empire Opera House, is a company of talented performers who have won their "spurs" in many prominent productions during the past season. They, one and all, are players of wide versatility and experience, having been selected with a view to their peculiar fitness to the parts they are called upon to fill.

VIEWS OF OTHERS

THE TAXES YOU PAY.

All Americans are paying, on an average, 10 cents a day in taxes. The bill for the entire country now runs over nine millions every 24 hours. A curious but erroneous notion exists that many folks escape taxes of every kind. In reality, the number who do not feel the finger of the tax collector in their pockets is extremely small. A fish has as much chance of keeping dry as the ordinary mortal has of avoiding a tax in some one of its many forms.

When you arise in the morning and turn on your bath, the water meter smiles blandly and takes its portion. As you dress for the day, the tariff on your shoe leather and your clothes bites a bit deeper into your exchequer. At the breakfast table you fairly choke on your invisible taxes. You may try to forget it, but you must help pay the milkman's tax and the egg dealer's tax on their land and a little duty on your toast that keeps out Canadian wheat. Your nickel to the railway company to haul you downtown yields a trifle to help pay the heavy corporation tax. At your office, the paper you write upon has not been able to dodge the revenue collector's eagle eye, that I can assure you. Your office rent is obviously fixed with a due regard to the taxes upon the building you help to occupy.

If you indulge in a glass of wine at dinner or a cocktail before it, my, oh, what a handsome little tribute you have paid for the upkeep of your Uncle Samuel's big establishment. You can see going up in the smoke of your cigar after dinner a snug internal revenue toll if you be a modest smoker, and a very smart tariff tax if you indulge in a real Havana.

You lounge comfortably in a duty-protected chair and put your feet upon a carpet that has yielded its fair portion for a nation's support—in both a little tax to the government. Well, finally, you turn out your gas and hope to stop this infernal tax-paying business, and lie down to peaceful slumber, does this ever-present monster let you alone? Not a bit of it! He makes you pay a tax on your house while you sleep.

So, in one way or another, each member of the family pays about 10 cents a day. Some families pay more and some less, but that is the average.—Philadelphia Ledger.

State Registrar Says Washington Will Have Nearly 9,000 in 1919

Data Collected By Registrar of Vital Statistics Indicates a Rapid Growth of Most Ohio Towns Before Next Census Is Taken, and Washington Is One Where Substantial Increase Is Predicted.

According to figures just compiled by Dr. A. C. Holland, State Registrar of Vital Statistics, this city will have a population of 8,704 in 1919, and virtually every city in the state will make a substantial growth.

The data collected by Dr. Holland makes an interesting study and he has figured out the increase of every county and city in Ohio, and some of the increases predicted are very great. He estimates the present population of Columbus at nearly 200,000 and says that in 1919 it will reach 233,685.

Cleveland will continue to be the largest city of the state, and as the years roll by Cincinnati will fall a little further behind each year. In 1919 Cleveland is given a population of 735,712, while Cincinnati will have only a little over half that population, or 420,677. At the end of 1913 Cleveland is given a population of 627,016, while Cincinnati is placed at 395,285.

Toledo remains the fifth city of the state, with an estimated population in 1919 of 183,369, or more than 40,000 less than the city of Columbus. Lucas County will have an estimated population of 229,248 in 1919.

Youngstown shows the largest growth, and jumps from an estimated population of 90,170 this year to a total of 110,936, six years hence. Akron jumps from a population of 69,623 in 1910 to an estimated population of 93,626 in 1919. Canton's population at the end of 1915 is estimated at 60,530, and a total of 68,415 is estimated at the end of the year 1919.

Springfield is credited with 51,489 in 1915 and 61,397 in 1919.

Dayton is given 133,056 in 1915 and 145,712 in 1919.

A substantial growth is shown in the population of Newark. In 1910 Newark had a population of 25,557 but in 1919, according to the figures of Dr. Holland, it will be a city with a population of 32,163.

Lancaster jumps from 13,179 in 1910 to 16,914 in 1919; Delaware, from 9,100 in 1910 to 10,135 in 1919; Coshocton, from 9,669 to 12,522; Bucyrus, from 8,155 to 9,577; Washington C. H., from 7,277 to 8,704; Cambridge, from 11,392 to 14,200; Logan, from 4,879 to 6,130; Lima, from 30,567 to 33,105; Athens, from 5,514 to 7,701; Nelsonville, from 6,096 to 6,699; Hamilton, from 35,518 to 45,877; Urbana, from 7,759 to 8,605; Mt. Vernon, from 5,139 to 11,380; Ironton, from 13,174 to 14,344; Bellefontaine, from 8,261 to 9,710; Marion, from 18,366 to 24,171; Zanesville, from 29,121 to 32,207; Chillicothe, from 14,540 to 15,935; Portsmouth, from 23,599 to 28,711; Marysville, from 3,578 to 4,064.

Bandits Rob Train Crew.

Bluefields, W. Va., March 1.—Missing an approaching fast freight for a passenger train, due at the time, three masked men, two of whom were alleged to be John Hatfield and Cleve Cline, held up No. 85, a fast N. & W. freight, at Alnick, 30 miles from Williamson. The bandits relieved the crew of all their valuables and paralyzed business on the division for seven hours. The bandits cut the telegraph and telephone wires.

Children of Royalty Seen In Happy Boyhood Playtime

Photos by American Press Association.

THESE interesting children of royalty can play as freely and boyishly as though they lived in a hovel and not a palace. The czarvitch, shown at top, is seen playing in the snow with his shovel. One can hardly think of the heir to the throne of Russia going about from door to door saying, "Please, mister, don't cha want yer walk shoveled?" But it's good to see he gets a chance at play anyway. Since his recent mysterious illness, however, he has been closely guarded even at playtime. The other two lads on the sled are Louis Ferdinand and Wilhelm, children of the crown prince of Germany. One of them may some day be emperor. They are having the time of their lives in the shadow of the palace at Berlin.

Old Question Settled at Last

Resolved, "That the government should own and operate the railroads of the country."

The foregoing question was fully settled in the affirmative by three competent judges at New Holland Friday night, when the New Holland High School team debated the question with the Ashville team and won.

Much credit for the victory is given to Roy Vandegriff, who spoke in rebuttal, piling up point after point until the negative side of the question was overwhelmingly defeated.

The three judges who passed upon the "evidence" were Supt. Fortney, of Clarksburg; Prof. O. K. Probasco, of this city, and Supt. West, of Wilmington.

The team consisted of Grace Shipley, Roy Vandegriff and Hazel Thomas. At Ashville, where Lester Taylor, Dudley Roth and Francis Timmons argued the question, they lost, the judges voting 2 to 1 in favor of Ashville.

Citizens Are Much Incensed

Quite a number of citizens in the southern part of the city are very much incensed and have made complaint to members of the Humane society over the methods employed by the dog killer of that neighborhood, and steps will be taken at once to stop the cruelty.

It will be remembered that the recent mad dog was killed in the southern part of the city after it had bitten a child. Since the order to muzzle dogs or they would be killed has been issued, a resident of the neighborhood is charged with using cruel methods in slaying dogs, and one case is reported where a dog, still breathing, was buried, while another live animal was dragged some distance by a hook imbedded in its flesh.

The Humane officer will make an investigation.

Now Up To Defense to Offset Case Made By the Nation

GOVERNMENT RESTS

In Proceedings For Dissolution of the Sugar Trust.

New York, March 1.—Assistant United States Attorney J. R. Knapp closed the government's case in the proceedings for the dissolution of the sugar trust. After a recess of 30 days the defense will open its case. Whether the defendants win or whether they lose, they will be out of pocket to the extent of about $500,000 when the trial is over. They will have to pay all the expenses of the whole case if they lose and have already put up $12,000 for the expenses of 40 witnesses from western states. The government has expended $10,000 for traveling expenses.

Guilford's Gold

Mr. Carter was very angry and when his daughter entered the room his wrath burst forth.

"So this is the way you obey me, is it?" he stormed. "I told you not to have anything more to do with that young Guilford, and the very next day you go against my wishes."

But Betty was not at all awed by this sudden storm. She was her father's own daughter, and her brown eyes looked into his steely blue ones, without flinching.

"I've promised to be Richard's wife, father," she said, quietly. "There's no harm in my going out walking with my fiancé, is there?"

Mr. Carter ignored the question. "You shan't marry him," he declared sternly. "He's a poor man, comparatively, and you know I've different plans for you."

"That's just it, father. You'd made up your mind that I shall marry David Thatcher, a man old enough to be my grandfather—almost—just because he is rich, and you want me to marry money."

"There's no need of our discussing why I want you to marry David Thatcher. We'll talk now about why I don't want you to marry that young rascal Guilford. You weren't cut out for a farmer's wife, Betty. I don't want you to have anything more to do with him, and I forbid it."

Betty said nothing, but the firm lines which settled around the pretty mouth told plainly that she did not intend to yield to her father's wishes. After a few moments she swept proudly from the room, and went upstairs to her own chamber.

"I really don't want to disobey him," she mused. "But I won't marry Mr. Thatcher. If father won't give his consent to my marrying Dick, why I'll marry him without it."

Suddenly her thoughts turned to what Richard Guilford had said that afternoon. "Don't worry, little girl," were his words at parting. "Just trust in me and everything will come out all right. Love always will find a way."

"What could he have meant?" she reflected. Richard had also told her that he was going to the city that week, but he would not say what business was taking him there. Although she wondered a little, she trusted him fully, and was confident that she would hear all about it when he returned.

That evening David Thatcher called, and though Mr. Carter requested her to treat him with cordiality, she was barely civil, and her elder suitor was quite chilled by her indifference. The question he had been intending to ask her he decided to postpone until she was more gracious.

A stormy scene was enacted between Betty and her father after Mr. Thatcher's departure, but the girl remained obdurate, and her father had to acknowledge to himself that it was not an easy matter to make her yield. Although he was greatly vexed with her, he could not help admiring her spirit.

A week passed, and then mysterious proceedings began to take place on Richard Guilford's farm. Richard had now returned from the city and brought a stranger with him. Some inquisitive neighbor had reported that he had seen the two men, with queer looking instruments in their hands, walking from one end of the farm to the other. This piece of news spread rapidly, and the villagers began to be very curious. Even Mr. Carter when he heard of it could not help wondering what it meant. As for Betty she was as mystified as anyone, but she felt that Richard, at the very first opportunity would let her know.

The next evening Mr. Thatcher called. When he arrived Betty was in her own room, and when she went down stairs she found him and her father in a state of great excitement.

The latter held the evening paper in his hand, from which he had apparently been reading aloud. Betty looked at him with questioning eyes, and he passed her the paper without a word. Immediately her eye caught this headline: "Gold Is Found on Young Farmer's Land in Freewill." Betty quickly scanned the details following this. Not that it was really necessary, for after the first moments of bewilderment, she had intuitively understood Richard's plan. She feigned astonishment at the news, and deceived both her father and Mr. Thatcher.

"I'm mighty glad to hear of this," declared Mr. Carter after a few moments. "According to the paper he'll be one of the richest men anywhere around. Well, he deserves it, if any person ever did. He's a lad after my own heart. And he's always been a first rate fellow. Ain't that so, Mr. Thatcher?"

Mr. Thatcher murmured an assent, but his manner was not very convincing. He had lost heart, for he knew that his rival now stood a good chance with the father.

Later when Mr. Carter and Betty were alone, he said: "I'll take back what I said a while ago, Betty. If you and Dick want to get married, why I shan't have another word to say against it. I'd rather you'd have him than any other man I know of."

But after all Betty did not marry money; for all the gold her husband brought her was a wealth of love and protection. — MRS. ANSTRUP A NICHOLS.

THE STIMSON BUILDING IN Y. M. C. A. GROUP DEFINATELY ASSURED

Mr. George Jackson Has Returned From a Visit With Mr. Charles M. Stimson in California and Brings News of Wealthy Philanthropist's Definite Plans.

FORMER WASHINGTON MAN WILL SEND ARCHITECT

To View the Location and Consult With Local Committee, George Jackson, F. L. Stutson and Austin F. Hopkins—Completion of Stimson Building Assures Washington One of the Finest Y. M. C. A. Homes in the State.

Mr. George Jackson returned Friday night from a visit of several weeks in Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Stimson, and Mr. Jackson are life long friends, the latter connecting himself in business with Stimson Brothers when he first came to Washington and their friendship the survival of long business association.

Mr. Jackson first joined Mr. Stimson at Elsinore Springs, Cal., where the busy philanthropist was taking a much needed rest, and afterwards was his guest in Los Angeles, where Mr. Stimson occupies the handsomest suite of rooms in the magnificent Y. M. C. A. building of that city, to which he contributed $100,000.

Mr. Jackson brings back from his visit news of much local interest in connection with Washington's Y. M. C. A. building. While he and Mr. Stimson were together they discussed the plans for the Stimson Industrial building, and completed them so that a fire-proof building will be erected at once.

Mr. Stimson has appointed Messrs. George Jackson, Frank L. Stutson, who is Mr. Stimson's nephew, and A. F. Hopkins as a committee to represent him in the erection of the building. He will send from California his own architect and superintendent who will begin work at once for the committee.

With the erection of the Stimson building, which will stand between the Morris-Sharp Memorial Y. M. C. A. and the new association building, the plant of the Y. M. C. A. will be complete and Washington will have the finest Y. M. C. A. of any city of its size in the state.

Mr. Jackson was greatly interested in the life of the California philanthropist, formerly our fellow townsman, as he gained personal insight into it and a closer view of what one can do whose splendid hobby is making others happy.

Mr. Stimson's office is not only one of the busiest places in California, but one of the most interesting. His property interests are most extensive covering hundreds of pieces of real estate, requiring the constant supervision of himself and secretary, for these are the source of his benevolence, and he gives to them his best attention as the fountain from which flow so many healing waters. Mr. Stimson has phalanxes of visitors, both those on business and after donations. Not alone is he known in many philanthropies, he is one of the notable figures in the country in connection with Christian Missions and through his holiday leaflets, well known in this community, has been brought in personal touch with thousands of people scattered all over the globe—people who through his "Beulah Railroad" leaflets are enabled to travel with him on the highway of happiness.

Only the large sums given to public benefices are generally found out. The number of missionaries Mr. Stimson supports, the untold good he does with his money in private channels, will never be known.

Some time ago he promised to give $40,000 for a site for a Y. M. C. A. in Shanghai, China. He immediately made a trip around the world, secured a map of Shanghai, showing the valuation of every piece of property and selected a beautiful lot, admirably located.

Upon this lot will be erected the building Miss Helen Gould has obligated herself to erect at not less than $50,000. Everything that Mr. Stimson does is characterized by his intimacy with the details and he wishes to know that his money is being used to the best possible advantage.

Hundreds of letters pour in to him from all parts of the world, testifying that he accomplishes great good in the broadest possible sense.

To quote from a special Los Angeles correspondent, "His is the simple faith in the power of the Holy Spirit to save men to the uttermost. He has no fads. His entire purpose is to come to the end of his life feeling satisfied that he has tried to make people more cheerful and happy in life and pointed them on the way to salvation."

A beautiful creed and its owner is the philanthropist who will make possible the completion of our splendid Y. M. C. A. plant.

FAYETTE COUNTY "SIDE WHEELER" WILL BE SOLD AT SPRING SALE

Irish Lad, 2:09 1/4.

This well known Fayette county pacer, a stable mate of the famous old campaigner, Major Mallow, will be sold by his owner, Roy Mallow to the highest bidder in the big spring sale of the Ohio Horse Sales Company to be held at the big pavilion on Dayton avenue, April 1-5. Irish Lad made good on the half mile tracks last year. He is one of the best campaigners ever raised in the county.

Beheld Field Filled With Electric Fire And Flees for Life

Mental Derangement Causes Man to Flee in Horror in Darkness of Night, Cutting, Bruising and Freezing His Bare Feet While Imaginary Apparition Pursues Him—Is Sent to State Hospital.

With his feet cut, bruised, frozen and swollen almost to twice their normal size, Elmer Brumfield, aged 47 years, was brought to this city from Cooks Station, in Madison township Friday evening to answer to a lunacy charge, and when arraigned before Judge Allen Saturday morning, was adjudged insane and sent to the State Hospital for the Insane at Columbus.

Brumfield's case is a pitiful one. Bereft of his wife he has been making his home in a small car or "shanty" located on a farm near Cooks, and has been making a living by working for various persons in the neighborhood.

Some little time ago neighbors began to notice that he was acting strangely, and this culminated in his apprehension Friday on a lunacy charge. Then it came to light that he had been running about the fields in the night, with no shoes or socks on, and had been terrorized by strange visions which made life a horrid nightmare for him.

In speaking of the strange things he witnessed in his unbalanced state of mind, Brumfield said in part: "In the field back of the car where I live the whole field was full of electricity and fire, and men and women were riding on horses and scooting around on the fire and seemed to be after me. I was riding one of the horses too, and was fleeing from them. Then I came to myself somehow and found that I was standing in the waters of the creek up to my arm-pits. Then I went back to my car."

While telling about the "electrical field" back of his car, Brumfield became greatly excited and waved his arms about in a high state of nervousness, while his eyes showed horror at the very thought of the mys-

Mexico Measured By State of Ohio

It may interest many residents of this part of the United States to use Ohio as a standard for measuring Mexico, in a large and general way, for it brings a foreign country close to familiar conditions.

In area Mexico is about nineteen times as large as this state. In population it is equal to three states such as Ohio, and a little over. But in fertile land, sufficiently watered and fit for cultivation, there is no such difference. Mexico tills about three acres for every two in Ohio, but the Ohio fields are far better utilized, as a rule, than the Mexican, and of the 15,000,000 inhabitants of Mexico only about 3,000,000 are of pure, or of nearly pure, white origin, while 38 per cent are Indians. The remainder are of mixed blood, with the Indian strain usually predominating.

Ohio has about as many horses as Mexico and of much better average quality. In cattle the odds are on the side of Mexico by about 5,000,000 to 2,000,000, but this comparatively small state has nearly as many sheep as Mexico, with its nineteen-to-one advantage in area. Ohio is far ahead in swine but Mexico has 4,000,000 goats.

Famous as Mexico is for silver and gold, the mineral products of Ohio, including pig iron made in the state, equal the total mineral production of Mexico, year by year. Ohio's coal offsets Mexico's gold, and the iron made here together with the clay products, balances the Mexican silver.

The largest city in Mexico, the capital, is about 150,000 below Cleveland in population and a little above Cincinnati. There is no other city in Mexico which is larger than Dayton, the second being Guadalajara, with San Luis Potosi close up.—Cleveland Leader.

"MADAME SHERRY."

"Ev'ry Little Movement Has a Meaning All Its Own" is the newest hit to become epidemic all over the country. The air is the theme of "Madame Sherry", the world's greatest musical offering by Otto Hauerbach and Karl Hoschna, which will be presented at the Empire Opera House Tuesday, March 4. The company to be seen in "Madame Sherry" is said to be even stronger than the original cast and numbers some of the highest salaried people in the musical comedy field. Several new musical oddities are introduced in which a famous beauty chorus is once more before us. Seats will have to be secured well in advance.

Ohio Is Ideal For Corn Growing

That Ohio presents ideal conditions for corn growing and the average yield of the state should be doubled what it is now is the opinion of C. J. Grant, of the College of Agriculture, Ohio State University. He says that better seedbed preparation, better seed and better cultivation might easily put the average about 60 bushels per acre. "Improper plowing and seedbed preparation are the causes of poor seed germination and imperfect stands of corn," declares Professor Grant. "Too many farmers finish their seedbed preparation after the corn is planted. They get in too big a hurry to plant. Our soils are harder to handle now than they were fifteen years ago, because they are becoming deficient in organic matter, therefore, we must give more attention to this phase of corn growing."

A good seedbed enables the corn plants to make larger root systems, increasing their feeding area and making them better able to withstand dry weather. Sufficient cultivation should be given to control and conserve the moisture supply, is the advice of this corn expert.

Chance To See How They Like Life on The Ocean Wave

MUST PAY THEIR WAY

Chance For Students to Experience Life On a Battleship.

Washington, March 1.—If the plans of Secretary of the Navy Meyer are accepted by his successor, a number of American college students will have a chance to experience life on a battleship this summer. The plan is advocated by Secretary Meyer and a number of naval officers as a means of increasing the number of men available as reserves for the navy in time of war. The students, about 20 to a battleship, according to the present plan, will have a course of instruction for about two or three months. Their instruction will include engineering, navigation, gunnery and seamanship. The students will have special accommodations. Students would have to provide their own outfits and pay their own expenses.

Big School Boards Are Pruned Down In New Bill

FOR SMALL SCHOOL BOARDS

Jung Measure Passes the Senate. Stand For Free Speech.

Columbus, O., March 1.—The Jung bill providing for the small school boards of five to seven members was passed by the senate. Aimed for Cincinnati, the bill, if it becomes a law, will affect most every city in the state.

The senate took an out-and-out stand in favor of free speech and an untrammelled press. By a vote of 19 to 9 it passed the Hillenkamp resolution denouncing "a spirit of intolerance against the constitutional guaranty of free speech and free press." The resolution called upon congress to investigate the prosecutions by contempt proceedings of public speakers and editors, and to pass laws to prevent any further abuse of this constitutional right.

THE MAJORITY REPORT IS A REAL STUNNER FAR-REACHING ACTION

REVOLUTIONIZES BANKING SYSTEM

Radical Legislation Recommended By Pujo Committee.

OFFERS REPORT AND TWO BILLS

Probers Say They Found the Existence of a Money Trust Fostered by the Morgan Firm and Allied Interest—Drastic Changes Urged in Management of Stock Exchanges and Clearing Houses.

Washington, March 1.—The Pujo committee's report and two bills embodying most of its radical and comprehensive recommendations were introduced in the house. The bills, if enacted into law, will not only revolutionize the great banking systems of this country, but will work far-reaching changes in the management of the New York stock exchange and clearing houses throughout the country. The committee accepted all of the suggestions made by Samuel Untermyer, its counsel.

The committee says it has found the existence of a money trust as defined under the resolution which authorized the investigation. The money power is pyramided on J. P. Morgan & Company and allied interests in New York, through groups of bankers in Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago.

To curtail this power the committee presents a long list of recommendations which, if accepted by congress, will wipe out of existence the interlocking bank directorates and interlocking stock holdings among banks, and will prevent the consolidation of two or more national banks except under the approval of the comptroller of the currency.

The recommendations also strike at the present fiscal relations between great banking houses like J. P. Morgan & Company and Kuhn, Loeb & Company and interstate corporations. Fiscal agreements such as J. P. Morgan & Company now have with the New York Central and the New Haven are prohibited.

Publicity Sought.

The security issues of interstate railroads are placed under the supervision of the interstate commerce commission, and in the disposal of the securities of these corporations competitive bidding is to be invited as in the sale of state or municipal bonds. The committee seeks to impose public reports on J. P. Morgan & Company and other private bankers.

A limitation is recommended upon the proportion of its capital and surplus which a national bank may invest in state, municipal and corporate bonds, and national banks are prohibited from engaging in underwriting securities.

The stock exchange is to be incorporated and stringent regulations complied with or it will be denied the use of the mails and the use of the telegraph wires in interstate commerce. Also clearing house associations are to be subjected to enforced incorporation.

The bills introduced include all the committee's recommendations affecting the stock exchange and the clearing house association and such of the recommendations concerning money and credit concentration as may be carried into effect through legislation governing national banks. Bills covering the rest of the radical program of the committee will be drafted later.

All seven of the Democratic members of the committee signed the report. Two of the four Republican members filed minority reports.

It appears that New Jersey, the mother of trusts is preparing to hand some much-needed discipline to her children.—Indianapolis News.

to interfere with commerce, but had simply declared liquor an outlaw and had then prescribed conditions under which it might enter interstate commerce. Senator Kenyon also briefly urged repassage of the bill, while Senators Paynter and Percy advocated support of President Taft's veto.

German Scientist Will Make Test Free

SUFFERERS TO OBTAIN TREATMENT FREE

Government to Test Friedmann's Tuberculosis Cure.

Washington, March 1.—If Dr. Friedmann, the German medical specialist, really has found a cure or reliable remedy for tuberculosis, sufferers from that malady in the United States will have an opportunity to obtain the treatment free through the United States government, by courtesy of the discoverer of the cure. This announcement was made by Surgeon General Blue of the public health service, following a conference which he had with Surgeon John F. Anderson, in charge of the hygienic laboratory.

Dr. Anderson returned from New York, where he was in conference with Dr. Friedmann. Although Dr. Anderson returned to Washington without the much desired cures for the anti-tuberculosis serum, he received a definite promise that the cures would be provided within a few days on condition that the public health service detail one or more officers for instructions under Dr. Friedmann before treatment is administered to human patients.

As soon as the cures are received experiments upon small animals will be put under way under the personal supervision of Dr. Anderson. In the meantime an officer, as stipulated by Dr. Friedmann, will be detailed for instruction duty under him in New York.

The Big Strike Is Declared Off

SETTLEMENT REACHED

Strike of 50,000 Workers On Men's Garments Declared Off.

New York, March 1.—The big strike of the workers on boys' and men's garments which began in this city Dec. 30 of last year was declared off, a settlement having been reached with the Allied Clothing Manufacturers' association, which were the last to make a settlement. Fifty thousand workers will return to work, thus ending the largest strike in the clothing industry that this city has ever seen. The strike originally involved 120,000 workers, but there have been a number of individual settlements from time to time. The employees receive an increase of wages, and the questions involving hours and other matters will be submitted to arbitration.

Weybrecht Explains.

Columbus, O., March 1.—"Other duties," incorporated in section 5296 by the Ohio legislators, furnished the authority by which Governor Harmon and Adjutant General Weybrecht sent 10 officers of the Ohio National Guard to France to participate in the international rifle shoot, at an expense of $5,400 to the state. The section enumerates a number of duties to which the governor may assign officers under pay, and concludes with "and other duties." Weybrecht disclaimed any purpose to shift responsibility from himself to ex-Governor Harmon for the conduct of his office.

KERN NEW SENATE LEADER

Martin Withdraws From Race For Re-election as Caucus Champion.

Washington, March 1.—Senator Thomas S. Martin of Virginia withdrew from the race for re-election as caucus champion of the Democrats in the new senate, which carries with it the majority leadership of the senate. His withdrawal had been foreshadowed since the disclosure last Saturday that a majority of the Democratic senators have pledged support to Senator Kern of Indiana as Democratic leader. It is now expected that Senator Kern will be elected probably by unanimous vote of this party colleagues.

There was interesting speculation as to just what effect this first victory for the insurrectionists in the senate would have on the senate reorganization. The younger element have demonstrated that they are in control of the situation, and it remains to be seen just how far they will go in asserting their claims.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
